

Pikes Peak Decorative Painters

General Meeting

April 3, 2010

Meeting was called to order at 9:17 AM by President, Edi Finkleman.
There was a quorum present with 22 members in attendance.

President: Edi thanked Lois Sanford for the new Directories and Jackie Gibson for presiding over last meeting. Meeting minutes will be in the next newsletter.

Vice President: Jackie Gibson stated program for today is a Fraktur by Sandy Springfield. Next month is the Homemade Anything Auction with potluck, June program is Memory boxes and July is the picnic with creativity challenge using the wood piece selected at February meeting utilizing butterfly theme.

Membership Secretary: Nancy Jefferson reported we have 3 new members with a total membership of 54.

Treasurer: Eileen Lipscomb reported the checkbook balance as $8875.79 as of 4/3/10. The chapter has paid deposits to Jillybean and Della Wetterman for upcoming seminars and paid Kate Dowd for the program last month.

Bazaar: Carolyn Culwell said the committee met on April 8 at Joyce Clothiers' home; there will be details and report in newsletter. She also encouraged more members to participate.

Community Service: Kay Kozak met with staff at St. Francis. Our memory boxes are very much appreciated. Any design is acceptable with the exception of happy children. Peggi Severini reported we now have 2 cases of boxes ready to paint.

Retreat: Retreat committee met this past week at Eileen's. This years cost to attend is $165 plus attendees must supply one surface. She will be placing an order for a tin watering can at a cost of $11.25 each for those members interested or they can supply surface of choice. When members pay their attendance fee they will receive surfaces and instructions.

Seminar: Terry Niznik gave details on the Della Wetterman seminar scheduled for April 24-25; there are 22 members attending. There will be an article in the newsletter with information on possible 2011 seminar teachers that members showed an interest in scheduling.

Ways and Means: Ellen Spearman asked if would be possible to send invitations to former members with information about the Homemade Anything Auction. Lois Sanford will send the invitations.

Old Business: Edi reviewed the brainstorming results from the February meeting and discussed printing up a business card with chapter info that could be given out to interested potential members. Audrey informed members they will need to supply a surface for the chapter logo programs in August and October. The pattern will be supplied for members to place as wanted on their surface.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:27 AM.

Respectfully submitted,
Secretary, Brenda Stotler
